

SCHOOL OF LAW

MLaw

Our new MLaw four year Integrated Master's programme gives you the opportunity to complete your LLB Law (QLD) and progress to a Master's qualification with SQE preparation which leads to the Solicitors Qualifying Exam. One of very few courses of its kind our MLaw is the perfect balance between globally recognised teaching and research to prepare you for your career as a solicitor.

Delivered in partnership with the University of Law, our MLaw programme combines the University of Reading's LLB Law with the University of Law's professional SQE1 and SQE2 preparation provision, preparing you to sit the Solicitors Qualifying Examinations (SQE).

LEARN FROM EXPERTS

You will study all four years at the University of Reading's award winning campuses and benefit from the expertise and practice of established legal scholars and enjoy a global close-knit community. Our staff actively shape law and policy and regularly contribute to international and UK policy development and law reforms.

YOUR JOURNEY TO BECOME A SOLICITOR

Throughout the first three years of study you will learn from world-renowned and nationally recognised experts, from a wide range of practical and academic backgrounds. You can study a variety of exciting modules that our staff specialise in including:

- Commercial Law
- Banking Law
- Family Law
- Medical Law

Your final year of study is tailored expert preparation for your SQE exams delivered by the University of Law at our London Road campus to gain all the necessary knowledge and skills to undertake SQE1 and SQE2 examinations to prepare for your career as a solicitor.

CAREER FOCUSSED / DESIGNED TO SUPPORT YOUR CAREER PATH

We offer an array of career-related, co-curricular activities alongside your main academic studies including client interviewing, negotiation, mediation, mooting competitions and pro bono work. Our work experience programme offers valuable opportunities in various industries, supported by a bursary. In the past, students have completed work experience with Thames Valley and City law firms (London), barristers, government agencies, not-for-profit organisations, and in-house legal counsel.

We provide assistance with CV writing, interview techniques and host commercial awareness workshops and other career-oriented events, including employer visits, alumni conversations, and career talks.

The following modules have been approved in principle for delivery in 2024/25. Please note that as part of our current curriculum improvement process, all modules require final University approval and may be subject to change. Placements are subject to availability and eligibility criteria, and are fully dependent on students securing their own placement opportunities.
